This company was in process of being financed through sales of stock to Italians in this country, and had paid its instalments on the purchase price of the vessel it purchased from the Government and was operating at a profit at the time the receivership proceedings were instituted.

The directors of the company and others interested in its development had agreed to supply the difference between its cash on hand and the money claimed by Conrad to be due the Government on account of the purchase price, putting the company in funds for such purpose until its carnings and the sales of lize stock should enable it to repay the

An offer to pay the amount due, namely, $114,000, was actually made to Mr. Conrad, who declined it, and on the saire day instituted receivership proceedings, thus automatically making impossible the further sales of stock of the company and preventing it from fulfilling its obligations to the Government."

Mr. Taselli has also written to Senator Calder, saying there should be an investigation by Congress or a Grand Jury.

The police could find but $279 in Manasow's pockets, but Eferron told them when he went back into the half-name way he saw several negroes searching the dead man's pockets.

Miss Grace Emily Clinton, 24, formerly of New Haven, who was left an orphan by the death of her parents a year and a half ago, and then went to live with her chum, Miss Marie Voorhees, an actress, died, according to the police report, yesterday morning at 41 West Twelffth street, of an overdose of morphine. She had been despondent for several days, and Monday night at a party in a Macdougal street restaurant her chum noticed that her eyes were unusually bright. In the party were Norman L. Mormand, an artist, and several other men. The young woman had mat Mormand about two weeks ago and, according to Miss Voorhees, Miss Clinton had fallen in love with him.

Mormand, who recently moved to the same house as that of the young women, was passing Miss Clinton's room yesterday morning when he heard cries and, analysing in fourned per diete. #### PLEASE DON'T SEND ME ANY MORE LETTERS

Last week I determined to test the knowledge of the public on a great historical subject by printing a list of ten questions in this newspaper, a la Edison, concerning the Queen of Sheba and King Solomon.

I was confident the great majority of New Yorkers, six million citizens, were keenly interested in this celebrated love story of King Solomon and the Queen of Sheba, which is being presented in such a thrilling and spectacular manner in my great super-screen spectacle, "The Queen of Sheba," now at the Lyric Theatre. "The Queen of Sheba," now at the Lyric Theatre. Subsequent events have proven I was right.

Up to yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock I had received 26,431 letters in reply to my list of questions. A corps of 22 stenographers and clerks working day and night, is now cataloguing the replies and they hope to finish their task by next Saturday night. The result of the contest and the names of the winners of the gold watch and other prizes will be announced in this newspaper Monday morning.

Meanwhile, PLEASE DON'T SEND ME ANY MORE LETTERS.

LETTERS.

The contest is now officially closed. We have our hands full trying to pick the winners from the avalanche of mail that has deluged the offices of "The Queen of Sheba" at the Lyric Theatre. We cannot read any more letters, much as we appreciate the interest the public has shown in this great picture. I thank you,

(Signed) WILLIAM FOX,

Producer of "The Queen of Sheba."
